

Jennifer Anderson, President and Chief Financial Officer

As President and Chief Financial Officer, Jennifer Anderson is responsible for the operations of the organization and the stewardship of its financial assets.

Anderson joined CRF as senior vice president and chief financial officer in 2015. She has extensive experience as a senior executive in the financial services industry, including strong qualifications in strategic planning, change management, asset-based funding and staff development and leadership.

Prior to joining CRF, Anderson served as vice president and treasurer of AgriBank, FCB. Before joining AgriBank, Jennifer held various leadership positions with a consumer financial services company, Ally Financial, completing her tenure there as senior managing director for international portfolio management. Earlier in her career, she worked in the fixed income markets as a trader and analyst with Bank of America.

Anderson earned her Bachelor of Science in economics with a mathematics emphasis from the University of Minnesota.